Interests

Tell us which areas you are interested in volunteering

Administration; Joining the policy making board of directors

Adoption Events: Going to places like Petco/Tractor Supply for a set amount of time, usually (not guaranteed) on a Saturday afternoon. Setting up a play area for the kids and encourage interaction with patrons. Answering any questions and generally spread the word of ferret awesomeness

Events: Help out with our larger annual events, e.g., Christmas in October and Clinic Day

Outdoor/Yard Work: Mowing lawn, tending to general outdoor chores

Fundraising: Brainstorming/implementing activities to encourage funding and awareness

Day to Day Shelter Duties: Cleaning around the shelter, changing food, picking up papers, filling waters, cleaning floors, toys, cages, etc.

Travel: Providing transport to ferrets, either partial trips or whole trips from rescue sites or veterinarian appointments

Surrender Pick-up: Obtaining a signed surrender form for Shelter records and providing transport to the ferret/s

Special Skills

Summarize special skills you have acquired from employment, previous volunteer work, or through other activities, including hobbies or sports, that you could contribute to the well being of LFFR/S

Availability

Identify which hours you are available for volunteer activities offsite from the shelter. Morning is 6am-11am. Afternoon is 11am-4pm. Evening is 4pm-9pm. All volunteer activity at the Shelter is held between the hours of 10am-4pm unless otherwise requested by Shelter staff.
